RULES AND ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR THE AWARD OF A TRAINING GRANT

- 1 BMF Training Grants are available exclusively to Employers who are BMF Members for the purpose of marine industry training or qualifications for employees of their company.
- 2 Priority will be given to applications that show progress towards a qualification.
- 3 Applications must be submitted on application forms available from BMF Training. Applications with invoices for £500 (ex-VAT) or less, will be considered by BMF staff, in accordance with instructions from the BMF Training Service Committee. All other applications will be considered at BMF Training Service Committee meetings which may be held up to four times per annum in the months of March, June, September and December, subject to any variation for operational reasons. The most recent Rules and Eligibility Criteria in force at the time of the meeting will apply to all applications.
- 4 Grants will not be for full costs. Employers and/or Employees must contribute towards the cost. Grants will normally be allocated for reimbursement, in arrears, of TUITION FEES ONLY excluding: travel, accommodation, subsistence, assessment, certification, membership, additional charges for documents, VAT and any other costs.

- 8 Those in receipt of grants must provide a brief written report on the benefit of their course when requested to do so by BMF Training.

No company will be awarded grants in any one financial year amounting to more than £500 or 3 applications per company. In the case of group membership, this applies to each individual member company within the group membership. For companies with more than 5 employees, grants will not be paid for statutory, regulatory or related essential qualifications that are required to meet basic operational needs, e.g. (but not limited to): First Aid, Fork Lift Truck/Crane/Hoist, Helmsman, VHF, General H & S, RYA Qualifications, LPG:

In the event that an applicant ceases to be a Member of the BMF or in the event that monies are misused, the BMF reserves the right to recover any grant monies awarded. The decision of the BMF Training Service Committee is final.
